

Who We Are

Glade Run Lake Conservancy (GRLC) was established as a not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization (pending) by a grassroots group of citizens concerned for the future of Glade Run Lake located in Middlesex Township in Western Pennsylvania.

Mission Statement

GRLC is dedicated to the restoration, ongoing preservation and improvement of Glade Run Lake and its adjacent lands. In addition, GRLC encourages its use for outdoor recreation and environmental conservation and education.

Values

GRLC recognizes that it plays a stewardship role for Glade Run Lake lands which are owned by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. In this role, GRLC promotes open dialogue and respectful collaboration with the state, local government(s) and affiliated agencies, as well as other public and private groups that have interests, talents, and resources which coincide with GRLC's mission.

GRLC welcomes and encourages broad community involvement from individuals and organizations toward ensuring that development and improvements to Glade Run Lake are an integral part of the local community life and regional heritage.

GRLC strives to invest donations of funds, volunteer energies and other resources entrusted to the organization as effectively as possible to support its mission. We hold ourselves accountable to the highest ethical and financial standards.

Near-term Goals

Generate monetary contributions and services in kind from organizations and individuals to seed the rapid recovery of Glade Run Lake.

Develop communication systems (e.g. website, email, brochures, newsletters, other) to regularly and effectively communicate issues and progress and to solicit help from interested organizations and individuals.

Establish and activate committees and other teams to achieve goals.

Build rapport with government, corporate, small business, nonprofit organizations, and individuals to support GRLC and accomplish its mission.
